

A floor plan diagram of a classroom. The room is rectangular with a light blue background. The walls are outlined in dark blue. On the left wall, there is a yellow rectangular area representing a door or window. On the right wall, there is a vertical row of 12 small squares, likely representing a chalkboard or a display. In the bottom-left corner, there are two small yellow rectangular areas, possibly representing storage or a desk. The text "S172 Classroom" is centered in the room in a large, dark blue font.
